

What is it you want to know?

What is it you want to know?

I can not talk until you ask a question.

If you do not know what you do not know then I can only tell you what I do not know; and that is, what is your question?

Your question may be about life but unless you ask I will tell you the time of day. Your question may be about love but unless you ask I will tell you about elephants.

Unless you ask your question I will not know how to help you. What is your question?

I can not talk until you ask a question.

If you are confused and seem lost and broken then seek to understand what has brought you on this path.

Your question may be about 'why' and 'what if' but unless you ask I will tell you things of no importance. Your question may be about 'how' and 'when' but unless you ask my words will have no meaning.

Unless you ask your question I will not know how to help you. What is your question?
